Tillman Explodes.

He Despises Grover Cleveland and Thinks He Ought to Be Impeached.

HE IS OWNED BY SHYLOCKS.

The South and West Must Get Together and Fight for the Next Congress—Blood Sucking Gold Thieves.

COLUMBUS, S. C., April 8.—While the eyes of all the people of the United States are turned upon this state in consequence of the recent alleged insurrection in Darlington, Gov. Tillman comes to the front with a suggestion of an upheaval in national politics. While the Associated Press correspondent was at the executive mansion to-day the governor read a letter he had received from a western populist, in which the writer said that the only thing he did not admire about the governor's political course so far was that he did not have the moral courage to come squarely out and call himself a populist. The governor then called attention to the fact that many northern and western papers were speaking of him as the populist governor. Then after a little deliberation he said:

"Yes, they call me a populist. I will tell them that I am the truest representative of Jeffersonian democracy in the lead in the American politics to-day. Let me tell you I do not see anything ahead now but for the southern democrats to combine their forces with their forces with the western populists and go into the national campaign on new party lines. The north-eastern democrats and republicans are now together. It is a combination of the moneyed interests."

The governor then, turning suddenly and in a somewhat excited and very forcible manner said: "I despise Cleveland and his mugwumps. He is no better than the rank republican. He has destroyed the democratic party. The south and west will be forced to unite and have a complete re-organization of party lines. The people who are afraid of the negro and other questions will have to cast aside their fears on those scores and come together on the one line of fighting the money combination. Cleveland has been working under the dictation of the New York bankers in the matter of issuing bonds. He has promised the banks, if they would take them, that there would be no more legislation on the silver question by this congress. Congress passed the seigniorage act and he vetoed the bill, indicating plainly the nature of his bargain with the bankers. The whole thing is such a scheme of robbery that he ought to be impeached for it. It is a shame and a disgrace. The idea of this great government having to beg a lot of Shylocks' assistance is so outrageous that there is not any language strong enough in which to characterize it. Cleveland is owned body and soul by these scoundrels. He secured his nomination at Chicago through the influence of a subsidized press and what votes he lacked there after exhausting such means he bought with promises of patronage, which promises have since been redeemed; the goods have been delivered. His attempt to browbeat and debauch the senators and representatives was outrageous in the extreme. If these cowardly congressmen up there had any appreciation of their duty to their constituents at home, they would impeach him.

"Consider the facts and the reason to the interests of the masses in issuing bonds under a pretense of increasing the gold reserve when the same and let out at another with silver certificates. And the same process can go on till the silver certificates are exhausted and the people have to pay the interest."

"Well, governor, what is your idea of what ought to be done?" was asked.

The governor thought for an instant and then said: "Well, I'll tell you. I think the silver men of this country ought to meet in convention in Memphis or St. Louis and organize a fight to control the next congress. Let the west and the south cast aside all questions upon any difference and get together. One more word as to Mr. Cleveland. I think that it is most damnable and outrageous his being dictated to and bought up by these bondholders. It is debasing his high office. He is abusing his power to dicker with such people and barter away the people's blood, even upon the pretext of financial relief. The newspapers which are snarling and snapping at my heels as being a populist, are the paid hirelings of his bosses. I am a populist in the sense that I am for the people's rights, but there are many planks in the populist platform which I do not indorse. If the silver congressmen will issue a call for a silver convention and carry the war into Africa we will teach these blood-sucking gold thieves a lesson in politics such as they have not had since Jackson's campaign against the banks. The farmers of the south and west will move onward in a solid body and demand legislation that will give them relief from the grinding poverty produced by 6 cent cotton and 30 cent wheat."

HORRIBLE TRIPLE MURDER.

A Farmer, His Wife and Son Slain In Cold Blood. Captured.

GAINESVILLE, Tex, April 12.—Early this morning, near Callisburg, T. B. Murrell and his wife was shot by a man named Crws, who waylaid them at the barn.

Crews was a hired man.

The wife was instantly killed. The husband will die. Officers are in pursuit of the assassin.

Just about sunrise Murrill went to the barn to feed his stock. Jack Crews, who was hiding in the barn, fired on him with a 45 caliber Winchester, one bullet entering his left breast just below the heart, the other passing through his right arm. He fell to the floor, and his cries brought his wife to the scene. When she reached the barn Crews fired at her, the the bullet passing through her neck, just below the chin, killing her instantly. Mr. Murrell lived until 7:30 this morning.

After assuring himself of the death of his victims Crews robbed the body of Murrell of $75 and, saddling his horse, rode away to Red river.

But his appetite for blood was not yet appeased. Riding over to the Murrell homestead, a farm about seven miles from the scene of his first crime, he found Morgan Murrell, the 23-year-old son, and without a word of warning fired, killing the young man instantly.

Tom Murrell was one of the best known men in Cooke county, and a brother of Hon. Jesse Murrell. He and his family were highly respected citizens of the Callisburg community. Crews is a man of about 40 years of age, sandy complexion, blue eyes and heavy build. He has always been regarded as a quiet, peaceable man, though cranky. It is impossible to get at the exact cause of the killing. Crews has been renting one of Murrell's farms for several years. A few days ago Morgan Murrell had a missunderstanding with Crews which caused the elder Murrell to rescind all contracts with Crews and order him to leave the place. This is supposed to be the real cause.

Yesterday Crews came to this city and borrowed a gun, made other preparations for the horrible crime to follow, and left for home last night.

When the news reached the city by courier this morning Sheriff, deputies and County Attorney Rogers left for the scene. Besides the sheriff's posse about 400 armed citizens are hunting for Crews. At last report they were not more than one hour behind him. The murderer is armed with a Winchester and it is thought he cannot be taken alive.

Coroner Hill has gone to the scene to hold an inquest.

Not for years has there been so much excitement in this city. Crowds congregate on every corner, all eagerly discussing the horrible crime. The news spread rapidly and at noon a large crowd left for Murrell's home to render any aid possible.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., April 13. John Jackson Crews, who is charged with the assassination yesterday of Thomas Murrell, his wife and son Morgan at their home, ten miles east of this city, is still at large. Four large posses, headed by deputy sheriffs, are scouring every nook and corner for the man.

Crews is known to have a brother residing twelve miles from St. Joe, in Montague county, and as his wife quietly left for there yesterday, many here are of the opinion that Crews is heading for that place.

Crews was born at Charleston, Franklin county, Ark., and has always been considered a desperate and dangerous man. He is a horse trader and has traveled all over the United States. It is said he is a personal friend of Bill Dalton, the notorious outlaw, and as seven members of the Dalton gang are known to be in camp along the northern border of the Indian Territory, the prevailing opinion is that Crews is heading for their rendezvous. If he reaches there it is doubtful if he will be apprehended.

At 4 o'clock this evening Sheriff Ware received a telegram from Marietta, 22 miles north of here in the Indian Territoy, stating that at noon a man answering Crews discription had been seen near there riding rapidly in a northerly direction, about 11 o'clock today. Sheriff Ware, accompanied by City Marshall Frasher and posse of armed deputies chartered a Santa Fe engine and left at once for Marietta.

Intense excitement continues to prevail in the Callisburg community where the tragedy occurred and the farmers declare they will hang Crews if given half a chance.

The murdered father, mother and son were buried side by side to day and hundreds attended the funeral services.

WHOLE COUNTRY AROUSED.

ARDMORE, I. T. April 13.—Great interest is taken here in the Murrell triple killing, and the marshals of both the United States court in the Indian territory and those of the federal court at Paris, Tex., a large force of whom are located here, are scouring the country in every direction, endeavoring to apprehend the murderer.

A farmer living eight miles east of this city reports a man answering Crews discription and armed with a Winchester coming to his house and making inquiry in regard to the roads. The stranger left going in the direction of Springer.

Officers immediately started in pursuit and as yet have not been heard from.

A telegram from Marietta states that Jim Thompson, living five miles south-east of Marietta, is certain that Crews stopped with him last night. A stranger whose discription tallies exactly with that of Crews came to his house after dark last night and left at daylight this morning, going in a northeasterly direction.

A party of marshals together with sheriff Ware of Cooke county left some six hours later in pursuit. With the efforts being made it does not seem possible that Crews can long escape capture.

Later--Crews was captured at Thackerville about 8 o'clock this evening as he was purchasing a ticket for Gainesville.

Before the capture he killed a traveling showman who tried to arrest him.

ARMED FARMERS COMING IN.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., April 13.—At 2. a. m. a report is current that a mob of 200 farmers heavily armed with Winchesters and shotguns is coming with the avowed determination of lynching Crews.

There are now fifty well armed men guarding the jail, who have instructions to protect the prisoner at all hazards, and they are well prepared to fulfill the command.

If an attack is made bloodshed will follow. At this hour crowds of excited men are on nearly every street corner, and the excitement is still increasing.

A rumor is in circulation that an attack will be made on the jail before morning, but at this hour nothing definite is known of an organized mob.

Later: The prisoner was lodged in the Tarrant county jail to escape the mob.

A Drawback.

"How slowly the train is moving now!" said a passenger.

"Yes," replied another. "The baggage master must have checked it."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

SAILED THE SEAS 38 YEARS.

One of His Experiences.

For thirty-eight years Capt. Loud followed the sea, most of that time as master of a vessel, and upon retiring from the water was appointed by the Secretary of the United States Treasury to superintend the seal fisheries in Alaska, which position he held five years. He relates one experience as follows:

"For several years I had been troubled with general nervousness and pain in the region of my heart. My greatest affliction was sleeplessness; it was almost impossible at any time to obtain rest and sleep. Having seen Dr. Miles' remedies advertised I began using Nervine. After taking a small quantity the benefit received was so great that I was positively alarmed, thinking the remedy contained opiates which would finally be injurious to me, but on being assured by the druggist that it was perfectly harmless, I continued it together with the Heart Cure. Today I can conscientiously say that Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure did I had been treated by eminent physicians in New York and San Francisco without benefit. I owe my present good health to the judicious use of these most valuable remedies, and heartily recommend them to all afflicted as I was."—Capt. A. P. Loud, Hampden, Me.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and New Heart Cure are sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, express prepaid. They are free from all opiates and dangerous drugs.

A FOOLISH MAN.

WOMAN.

THE jury in the Pollard-Breckinridge case returned a verdict of $15,000 damage for Miss Pollard.

MOST papers are inclined to the opinion that a man who borrows a paper is worthy of condemnation. THE MCKINNEY DEMOCRAT however, says: "Read THE DEMOCRAT and preserve it for your neighbor."—Denison Herald.

LABOR is capital composed of brain and muscle and its right to organize cannot be disputed no more than we can dispute the right of capital to organize. Such is the decision of Judge Caldwell.

HON. S. W. T. LANHAM of Weatherford made his opening speech at Commanche as a candidate for governor on the democratic ticket last Saturday. He carefully avoided the discussion of the national administration with the exception of a few guarded words.

YESTERDAY the democratic congress adopted Reed's rule of the 51st congress, which provides for counting members present who refuse to vote. Reed is happy over his victory in forcing the democrats to his rulings. Congressman Bailey voted in favor of the quorum counting rule. Forty-seven democrats voted against it.

THE MCKINNEY DEMOCRAT has mistaken a small sandstorm for a landslide or else did not expect much. It says: "The landslide to the populist party in Texas is great beyond expectations."

That's right. Expect little and your disappointment will not be so great.—Sherman Times.

The man who expects little of the present administration will certainly be gratified.

WE learn with the deepest regret of the death of our good friend, Ward Taylor, late editor of that splendid and fearless journal, the Jefferson Jimplecute. He was one of the oldest newspaper men in the state. His remains were followed to the grave by the largest concourse of people ever witnessed in Jefferson for a number of years. Our keenest sympathy goes out to the few remaining members of his family.

ADVICE from Colorado as to the late election is not discouraging to the people's party, especially when we consider that a citizen's ticket in reality a populist victory. The following statement shows the result of fifty-fine towns: Populists carried 17 towns; Republicans carried 13 towns; Citizen's Ticket carried 22 towns; Mixed Results carried 5 towns; High Licens carried 6 towns; Prohibition carried 1 town; Democrats carried 1 town.

AT a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the bi metallic league, it resolved to hold a southern silver convention at Memphis, Tenn., about May 15th. It is to be a delegate convention, twenty-five from each state at large, ten to be appointed by the governor, and fifteen by the league. In addition thereto, the friends of silver in each county will be requested to send one delegate to represent their respective county. This is to be a distinctive southern silver convention, but friends of silver from other states will be invited by the league.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RACE.

We notice in a special from Denton that our fellow citizen, E. W. Kirkpatrick is being advocated as a candidate for congress in this district. We know it as a fact, that Mr. E. W. Kirkpatrick is not seeking a nomination for any office, yet we wish to second the good judgment of our Denton county friends in his behalf. In the broad domain of the state of Texas there is not a truer man, one who has been more thorough in sympathy with the people's struggle for constitutional liberty, who has fought more battles in their interest without remuneration than E. W. Kirkpatrick.

His qualification and honesty cannot be impeached by the bitterest political enemy. If his name should be presented to the convention for the honorable posit on we believe that we voice the sentiment of Collin county in stating that he will receive its undivided support.

We note also that the name of Rev. Browder of the Gainesville Christian church is mentioned in connection with the nomination.

This gentleman has a state wide reputation as a debater and orator who is a thorough populist. We hope the convention will act wise in its selection.

No Crutches Now

A Cripple With Rheumatism

Made Perfectly Well By Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. W. G. Clark
Little Rock, Ark.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Allow me to thank you for the great good Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me. It is one of the best medicines I ever saw. For years I suffered with rheumatism and headache, hereditary in our family. I tried everything I could hear of for my own case, but could not find any relief until I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I must say I was one of the ever seen, for long before I finished the first bottle I was so much improved and felt so much better that I would often pinch myself to see if I was the same man. I could hardly believe that I was, for I could eat and sleep well, and I could go without my crutches, and after I had taken my third bottle was a new man and able to do as much work as I ever could. I have laid my old crutches away as a in the past. I always take pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla to suffering humanity as the best and only medicine that ever did me any good. It has made a stout, healthy man out of me, when I was such a wreck. I also had trouble from sour stomach, symptoms of dyspepsia and costiveness, but Hood's Pills have cured all that." W. G. CLARK, 304 Ringo Street, Little Rock, Arkansas.

BRANCH TO REAGAN.

Reagan and His Followers are Welcome to Enlist Under the Populist Banner.

MCKINNEY, Collin Co. Texas, April 14.—[To The News.]—Knowing the liberality of The News in donating its space for free expression in public opinions I ask, as a populist, its indulgence to enable me to reply briefly to the manifesto of Hon. John H. Reagan which was printed in Friday's issue of The News.

As an humble citizen I feel a timidity in taking issue with such a distinguished gentleman who has been honored so many times by the people of Texas.

Senator Reagan begins his lengthy article by a calamity review of the country which has been growing worse ever since demonetization in 1873—twenty years ago. With almost the accuracy or a populist he deals in statistics to show the perfidy of the single-gold standard gang. The populists have been much abused because they have been "calamity howlers," yet we venture to assert that no populist within the broad domain of the Lone Star state has ever raised such a calamity howl as Judge Reagan, as is contained in the following:

"There is at this time a greater supply of all food and manufactured products and cheaper and more abundant transportation in the United States than at any former time. And there is at this time greater destitution, hunger and starvation and more men out of employment, more tramps and beggars and more sorrow and wretchedness than was ever before known in this country in time of peace. With most abundant harvests and bountiful supplies of all articles of food, cheaper than such articles ever were before, large masses of men cannot get work to enable them to supply their families. And bands of unemployed idle men are marching through the country in search of relief. All products of the field, the factories and forests, are so low in price as to make their production unremunerative."

In referring to the treachery of President Cleveland the aged railroad commissioner uses this remarkable language:

"In Mr. Cleveland's first term as president he repudiated the policy of the democratic party as to the coinage of silver and on financial questions and adopted the policy of the republican party, and thus did more than any republican president could have done to degrade silver, because by adopting this course he added the weight of a democratic administration to that of the republican administration."

If this be true, is not Mr. Reagan and every other free silver democrat who voted for Cleveland for the second term a traitor? In the face of this inexcusable blunder Mr. Reagan has the audacity to invite the populists of Texas to join the gang who persist in voting for the "yaller" dog nominee and then is cruel enough to kick the dog.

The populists have too much respect for Mr. Cleveland or any other man to vote for him and then desert him because he dares to practice what he has previously preached.

The wily ex-senator admonishes the populists to return to the anti-Cleveland wing of the democratic party, stating that "the populists agree with the democracy on the question of coinage, the tariff and a tax on incomes, and as to necessity for an increase of the volume of currency, In fact, they borrowed these politics from the democratic party."

Granting that we did borrow these politics from the democratic party, all must concede that the g. o. p. has no use for them for it is decidedly opposed to their incorporation into law.

Mr. Reagan must understand that these questions will become obsolete in his party just the same as the anti-national bank issue, cherished by the immortals, Jefferson and Jackson, became obsolete so far as the democratic party is concerned.

Mr. Reagan views with seeming distrust the government ownership railroad question in the populist platform. He calls attention to the enormous values of railway properties and thinks it impracticable for the government to make such a purchase. Can it be that these corporations which are only part of the government are more wealthy than the government which includes the whole?

To begin with, millions of dollars in land and cash have been granted from the great treasury of the people, by national, state and municipal governments and also by individuals to these corporations. In addition, bonds have been issued which represent millions upon millions of dollars which becomes due far in the future. The producers of our country must bear the burden of these bonds which Mr. Reagan prates so much about and yet the railways remain in the hands of the corporations.

Jush how the venerable senator can hold that government ownership is unconstitutional and impracticable, and at the same time favor government control, is beyond the comprehension of the humble writer, unless we were to conclude that the senator is a little selfish, owing to the fact that he is one of the commissioners who draws his pay during the "lay off."

We take the position that the right to control carried with it the right to own and in this case far more reasonable. No one doubts the perfection of the postal service under the management of the government and yet the principle is the same. We could cite the opinions of Thomas Jefferson and others to prove the efficacy of government ownership of great public enterprises which affect the whole people, but we are already intruding upon the valuable space of The News.

Suffice it to say that the populists of Texas will extend the hand of welcome to our honored friend Judge Reagan, and his many followers when they drop some of the visionary schemes contained in the car stable platform and will guarantee that there are not a sufficient number of traitors in our ranks to block legislation in favor of free coinage, tariff reform, income tax and the enlargement of our currency and many other wholesome measures necessary to the prosperity and happiness of the American people. J. T. BRANCH.

GETTING UNEASY.

[Waco Day-Globe, April 3]

Newspapers and men may explain as vigorously as they will why Cleveland's veto of the seignorage bill was consistent and "the best thing for the country." This is very kind of them, especially when the defendants are democrats But all the explaining cannot hide the fact that the veto discourages, depresses democrats, as a mass, because indicating that this administration is committed to a policy that strengthens gold and plutocratic influences. The advocates of silver and bimetalism must acquiesce, of course. They cannot do anything else for the time being, and probably the most practically sensible procedure now in congress would be to pass a bill simply providing for the coinage of the seigniorage without any other conditions, and let the president veto that—if he will, although that he might sign. That is all that can be done in the way of legislation. But the great work of educating the people can go on steadily from now until November, educating them to the necessity of electing congressmen who will stand firm for bi metalism. It will be a wonder in politics if the democratic majority can be held in the next house, but the effort can be made. One thing is certain—if democrats do not nominate and elect representatives known to be sound on bimetalism they will find that many districts in southern and western states will put in populist congressmen who will stand firm for silver. And following the education and effort of this year will come the continuance of the work through to '96, when a western or southern man, who is not the champion of gold, will lead the democratic party as its candidate for president. The fight and the outcome are for the future.

A New Party.

Since the veto of the "Seigniorage Bill," a number of southern and western democrats have talked of severing their connection with the eastern democracy, and to unite the south and west. This in particular, has been emphasized by Gov. Tillman, Representatives McLaurin and Bryan. There is no doubt but that these men are moved by high and patriotic motives, yet they do not advance any method by which these two sections can be united. The west, until recently, has been solidly republican, and the south, just as solidly democratic.

At the last general election, the twenty-eight states west of the Mississippi, and south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers polled 5,074,520 votes, divided between the three parties as follows:

Parties	Total Vote	Per Cent
Democrats	2,279,547	44.9
Republicans	1,876,885	36.9
People's Party	918,088	18.2

Now, do these gentlemen intend to unite the south and west, by remaining in the old parties with this table before them? Will the republicans of the west abandon their party, and join the southern democracy? No. That will never be done. Will the southern democrats abandon their party and join the republicans of the West? No. The people of the south will not be lead into that camp.

The only honorable course to persue, is for the people of the south to step out of the democratic party and meet the west half way, and for the people of the west to step out of the republican party and meet the south half way. This is common ground upon which both can stand, and will unite the south and west with the one million men who voted the populist ticket in 1892. At the last election one million voters in these two sections declared at the ballot box, to lay all past differences aside, and meet each other half way, this will be followed by two million more next November. Victory for populist principles will come on these lines just as certain as election day approaches. The great obstacle the people's party had to contend with in the south during the last campaign was the democratic cry "give us a chance," and the great one for them to overcome this year is the "fact" that they had a chance. The argument which elected them in '92 will defeat them in '94. If we further analize the election returns of the two sections we find that the fourteen states south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers, including Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, polled in 1892, 3,157,838 votes, divided as follows:

Parties	No of Votes	Per Cent
Democrats	1,767,603	55.9
Republicans	970,450	30.7
People's Party	419,785	13.4

The fourteen states west of the Mississippi river, which until recently have been solidly republican, polled at last election, 1,916,682 votes, divided as follows:

Parties	No of Votes	Per Cent
Democrats	511,944	26.7
Republicans	906,435	47.3
People's Party	498,305	26.0

The people's party in the western states polled almost as many votes as the democrats, and had the attitude of this administration towards silver, been known then as now; 90 per cent of those who did vote for Cleveland would have voted for the populist ticket.

The same is true of the south, in spite of the democratic election methods, we polled nearly half million votes. Nothing but the frantic cry "give us a chance" keep the south in line. The south and west are debtor sections, they demand more money, and will accept nothing less. The outcry of a plundered people is reaching heaven; let those who have brought this condition about, beware, because the people will not cease agitation until the machinery of state is reversed.

The writer attended services at the Baptist church Sunday night. Rev. A. E. Baten preached an eloquent sermon on the subject: "The love of Christ constraineth me." The minister made many illustrations to prove the virtue of restraint. He regarded love as the true object of bravery. Love is one-sided. Only the good and pure of its object can be seen. He wished that the head of each family in McKinney loved his family so partially that after supper he would remain with it in preference to loafing in town on street corners, in beer halls, saloon or club rooms. The sermon was most practicable and eloquently delivered to a good sized audience. After the regular services the ordinance of baptism was administered to three lady candidates.

We have been approached by several democrats in McKinney who say that they would join the people's party at once if we would dispense with the sub-tressury and railroad planks. These gentlemen should remember that they have been taught to accept their own party platform, which they could not indorse all the way through—that a platform cannot be framed to suit each individual composing the party. Further, they have been taught to enter the organization and help purify its declarations and purposes. Why not join us, gentlemen, and aid us to frame our platform, fight the battles for the people against traitors, some of whom you acknowledge to be in your party and leading it to destruction and injuring the whole people? We should lay aside prejudice, don the cloak of fraternity that we may become united against a common enemy.

It is a noticeable fact that J. T. Branch is always found in the thickest of the fight when it comes to defending populist principles. Last Saturday night he met Judge Abernathy in joint debate at Bowlby school house and in a most worthy and able manner defended his cause against the attack of this champion of Collin county democracy. Mr. Abernathy was accompanied by about a dozen of his admirers from McKinney who cheered him to some extent, The house was crowded with an interested audience. Mr. Branch has won the admiration of Collin county populists and no doubt he will be one of their standard bearers as a candidate for the legislature who will accept the unsought honor and make the fight for his people from every stump of Collin county.

From all over the county comes the demand for Prof. John Doyle to make the race on the populist ticket for state representative. We have interviewed Mr. Doyle and learn that he is not seeking the nomination and expresses himself as being most grateful to his many friends who are interested in him. He desires the party to select some one else. Mr. Doyle is one of the youngest and ablest exponents of political reform in our county whose heart beats in sympathy for the masses. He is unassuming, a scholar of unusual ability, loved and admired by all all who know him. If placed on the ticket he will honor the same and will never back down before tee bombastic charges of the enemy. With an unimpeachable character his future is bright.

The populists of Collin county will gladly rally to his support. He has helped to fight their battles in the past. They remember this and will honor him for it.

A Joint Discussion.

BOWLBY S. H. April 17, 1894.
Editor Democrat.

A large crowd was at Bowlby last Saturday night to hear the debate between J. T. Branch, populist, and M. G. Abernathy, democrat. Quite a number of democrats were on hand from McKinney. Mr. Branch opened the discussion in 40 minutes during which he ably gave his reasons for being a populist which was very convincing. Mr. Abernathy followed in a 50 minutes rejoinder in a very eloquent manner. He urged the people to stick to the democratic party though some of its leaders had been miscreant to their trust. He ridiculed the populists; denounced the republicans as being responsible for all government ills. Mr. Branch made a telling rejoinder of 10 minutes after which the speaking adjourned. The populists are getting thick out here.
